

MICHELLE RODRIGUEZ & KRISTANNA LOKEN IN LOVE!

The Advocate

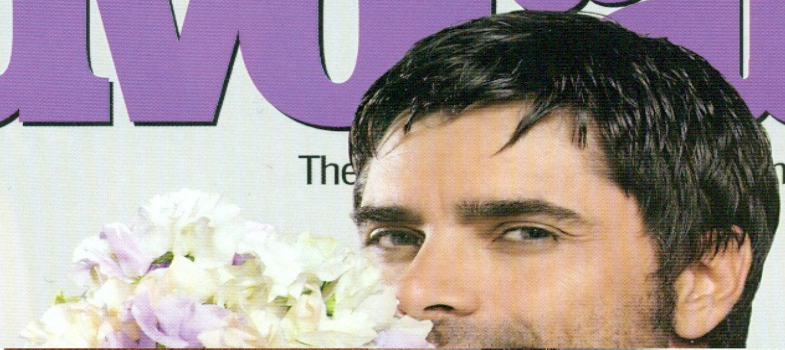

www.advocate.com
DECEMBER 5, 2006

The [man's face] newsmagazine

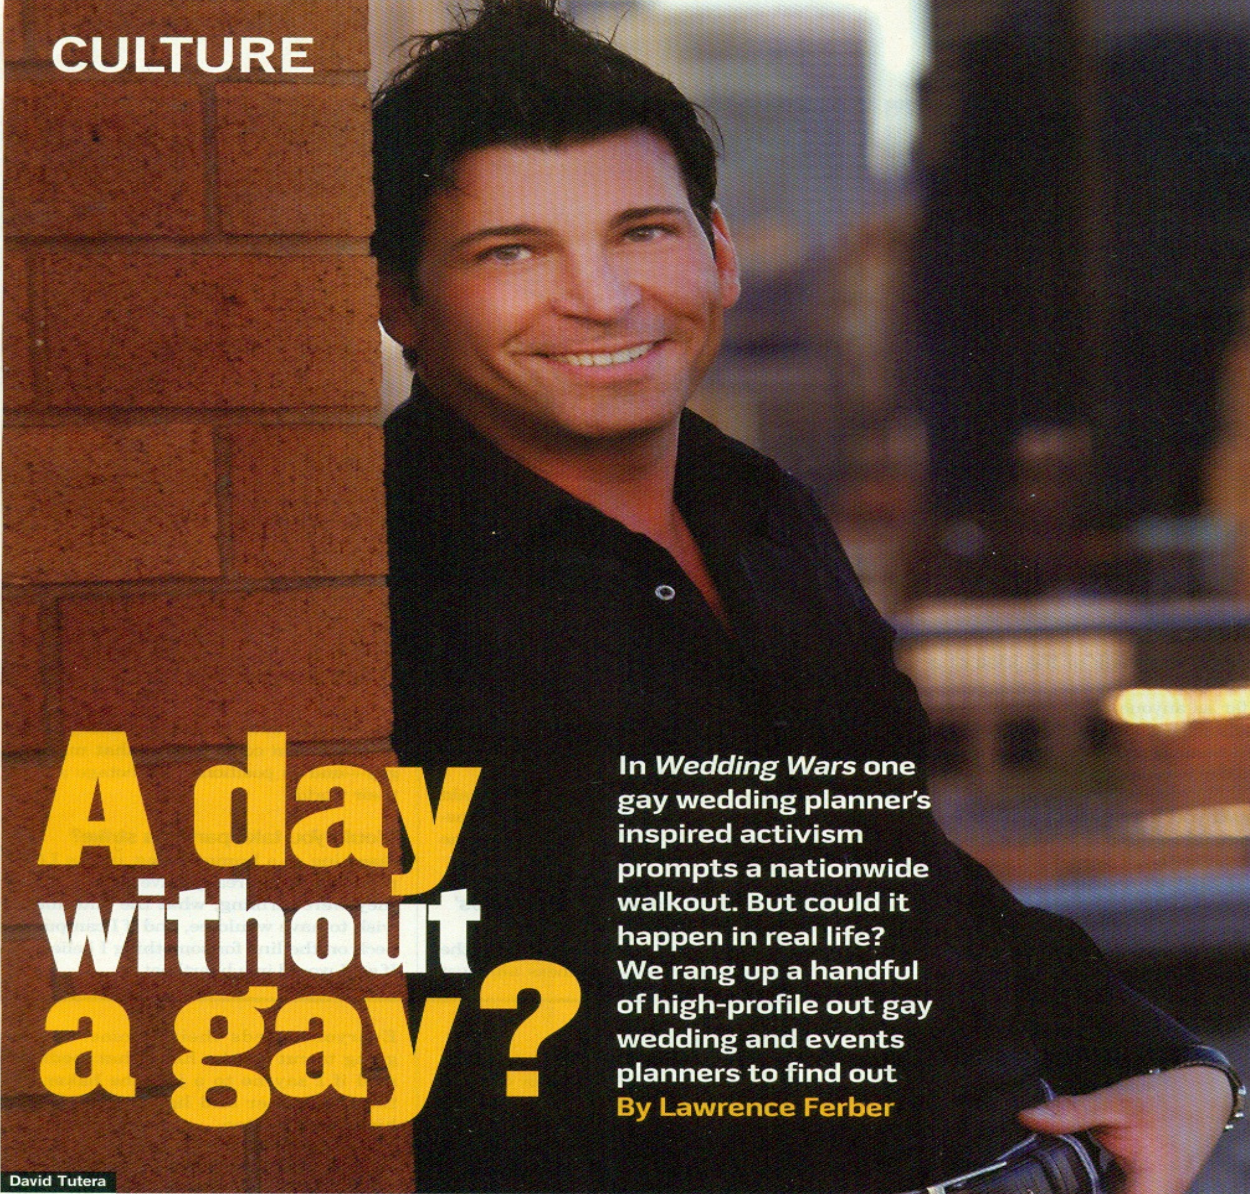

WOULD YOU TAKE THIS MAN?

John Stamos
In TV's Wedding Wars, the sexy single proposes... to a guy

PLUS HOLY HAGGARD! THE ESCORT SPEAKS

CULTURE

A day without a gay?

In Wedding Wars one gay wedding planner's inspired activism prompts a nationwide walkout. But could it happen in real life? We rang up a handful of high-profile out gay wedding and events planners to find out
By Lawrence Ferber

David Tutera

DAVID TUTERA

David Tutera Inc.: Discovery Home Channel's Party Planner With David Tutera; author of The Party Planner and America Entertains: A Year of Imaginative Parties, among other titles
Credits: He's the man behind Jennifer Lopez's Still perfume launch, Star Jones's wedding and a slew of events for celebrity clients such as Elton John, Kenneth Cole, and Matthew McConaughey. He's also been a regular contributor on The View and even a guest of the grand dame of events herself, Oprah.

What impact might a strike have?

The reality is, if we lose our gay planners, we're not going to have very good parties out there. There are two very special party planners—gays and straight women. And the ironic thing is, the straight women have to surround themselves with gay vendors to make themselves look good. That's how I started my career. I worked for these women who were clueless!

Would you take part in a strike?

Absolutely, 1,000%. ▶